

KNOWING YOUR DESTINY

Matthew 20:17-19

"Sanctify them
by the Truth.
Your Word is Truth"
John 17:17

Easter 2019

I. Introduction

II. Mankind seems to be on a quest to know the future.

A. Man is always curious about what the future will be.

B. There are legitimate ways that people try to gain knowledge and wisdom so they can make predictions that will be helpful in their planning for the future.

C. There are also illegitimate ways to try to determine what the future will bring.

III. Jesus' future. 17

A. A very brief review of the previous passages.

B. What happens next? 17

C. The prediction of Jesus. 18-19

IV. Jesus' sufferings.

- A. Jesus had said earlier that He would suffer many things from the elders, chief priests and scribes.

- B. Many people don't understand the importance or the purpose of Jesus' suffering.

- C. All that Jesus said would come true in just a few days time.

- D. The Scriptures refer to Jesus' sufferings before and during the crucifixion as plural, because the suffering He underwent was multifaceted.

V. Jesus' glorification.

VI. Our Future

- A. Your destiny can also be known.

- B. What is your destiny?

- C. The gospel boils down to believing the truth about Jesus Christ.

VII. Conclusion